

BIOGRAPHY OF ELIAPENDAVYO FIKIRINI MSUYA

Eliapendavyo Fikirini Msuya is a Laboratory technologist at Amani Research Centre holding a Diploma in Medical Laboratory from Muhimbili University of Health and Allied Sciences. He is responsible for carrying out laboratory sample analysis, to collect sample and perform Laboratory test according to the study protocol. To assist senior laboratory scientist on their roles. To conduct on job training of new and junior staffs and students who are in practical training.

He is currently heading a laboratory animal house unit as a supervisor with an overall responsibility for providing Species-specific requirements such as environmental requirements (i.e., lighting, temperature, humidity, air quality, appropriate day/night cycles) and also availability and design of space to enable free movement and activity, sleeping, privacy and health in general to ensure animal wellbeing and comfort is achieved.

He is also responsible for designing, implementing and maintaining the quality management system to ensure that the animal rights are maintained and other resources are available to enable effective operation of the processes of the quality management system in the unit.

Eliapendavyo also participated in the following research activities, National survey indicators for Neglected Tropical Disease (NTD) throughout Tanzania main land. National Quality control and quality Assurance Surveillance of Olyset nets distributed throughout Tanzania main land and also Malaria Entomological Surveillance, Monitoring of Insecticide Resistance (IRM), Strengthening Diagnostic and Analytical capacity of Viral Hemorrhagic Fevers and Mosquito Borne Viral Diseases in Tanzania.